Live for, die for, only you.
Hold on, stay strong and we'll make it through.
I can't see the sun.

Turn on, turn off the light.
This time I'll be by your side.
I can't see the sun.

What if I said it's all in my head, would you believe me
now?
All my regrets hand by a thread, could you set me free
somehow?

Too much, too late, I know.
I've made mistakes but I've grown.
I can't see the sun.

What if I said it's all in my head, would you believe me
now?
All my regrets hang by a thread, could you set me free
somehow?
Could you move on, just say the words and you'll turn around?
Can you hear me?
Can you hear me, now?
