Visit "Wide Open" on MotoLyrics.com

I'm here, I'm helpless.
If something is wrong, I'll play along.
But look where that got us.
I know, that I can be selfish.
From what they can see, they'd blame it on me a severe lack of progress.
Can't you see?
That I'm wide, wide open.
These words I've spoken, they don't mean anything.
Is this, is this what you wanted? my heart on the floor,
like a victim of war.
You'll leave my world haunted.
Can't you see? that I'm wide, wide open.
These words I've spoken, they don't mean anything.
Can't you see? that I'm wide, wide open.
My will is broken, and these emotions, they don't mean anything.
And your greatest fear was you were worth missing.
And I'm sorry, it's clear that you were worth missing.
