Visit "Without You" on MotoLyrics.com

So here we are. We're out on our own.
Doing things that we were never told.
If the best of me and the rest of me is gone
How come it had taken us so long?

We fell too hard this time
We can't get up without you

So take these tears and try to make me whole.
Teach me how to let this anger go
If the best of me, and the rest of me is gone
How come it had taken me so long?

We fell too far behind
To make this up without you

Without you there's no more to make this right
