What's on your mind?
Could've been careful
And kept defenses high and life in line
You shouldn't have let go
And offered up your soul

I think it's time to say
You're my life
You're my whole world, you're my life
I'm only blown away
You were right
You were right, love
You were right

What's on my mind?
I never think wishful
And no one really tries so why should I
Sacrifice my freedom
Don't fence in my kingdom
Till I spent time without you
And missed that perfect peace when you're beside
It's my own breakthrough
To let somebody inside

I think it's time to say
You're my life
You're my whole world, you're my life
I'm only blown away
You were right
You were right, love
You were right
I think it's time to say
We'll be fine
We'll be fine, just give it time
I'm only blown away
You were right
You were right, love
You were right

You were right
