Stand at the edge of love
and what do I see.
Like you've escaped me,
it seems so crazy.
My love's an average you've chosen you'll see Reason has left me,
how it feels safely.

So deep in love, I'm falling apart
it makes no sense of my heart.

Chorus

It's this crazy thing that we call love Got me searching for a meaning when there is none.
Then that little thing called love.
The tears go where I want it.
It's heart ache can break a joy in many words
It's crazy this thing called love.

What are these feelings.
I can't help myself.
Just want to care me,
I want you baby.
Love's an enigma,
it don't make no sense.
My mind's gone hazy,
it drives me crazy.

All these emotions, can't figure them out.
Guess that's what love is about.

Repeat Chorus

So deep in love, I'm falling apart
it makes no sense of my heart.

Repeat Chorus until end
