Your glare feels like the heat of the air that's on the sun
It makes me wanna get up turn my back and run
My skin just crawls
When I'm anywhere near you
I guess I'm just confused
Thinkin' lies are truths

When I know you better
Should know better
Better than the broken heart love wait rar
I feel like I don't know you
Let alone myself

I don't know who I am anymore since
You walked out on me
I forgot about
The person that
I'm supposed to be
I hate
The feel of a never ending fugue
When you call me baby
I know
This can't be
This
Could not
Possibly be real
You still call me baby

I still remember how you push your lips to mine
I can't forget it you drove me out of my mind
You made me feel
Like I was flyin' like a bird
Really trusted you
I believed your every word
But I was better
I loved you better
Better than the way you used to let her
It's like I never knew you
'Cause I don't know myself

I don't know who I am anymore since
You walked out on me

I forgot about
The person that
I'm supposed to be
I hate
The feel of a never ending fugue
When you call me baby
I know
This can't be
This
Could not
Possibly be real
You still call me baby
Baby

This is the sound of my heart breakin' every note you

Oh
This is the sound of my heart breakin' every note you

You still call me baby
