Everything about you
Is beautiful
Your hair your laugh your smile and your eyes
And hey you looked really cute
Today
Are those honestly
The only things
You know how to say

Don't get me wrong
I appreciate it
But the problem is Even you don't believe it
And it wouldn't matter
If either of us did
God she's so lucky

I'm so sick of the way
That you lead me on
But I apparently have no self-respect
Thought I was stronger than this
Thought I knew better than to jump head first
Into what I knew
Was solid ground
And it ain't goin' nowhere when I come down
Thought I knew better than that
But I just keep goin' nowhere
Nowhere fast

Love how I'm laughin'
As I write this
'Cause I know somethin' you don't know
But you never will
She must think leavin' you
Hangin' is just so fun
But what can you do
Your just a boy
In love
She's so damn lucky

I'm so sick of the way
That you lead me on

But I apparently have no self-respect
Thought I was stronger than this
Thought I knew better than to jump head first
Into what I knew
Was solid ground
And it ain't goin' nowhere when I come down
Thought I knew better than that
But I just keep goin' nowhere
Nowhere fast

I'm so sorry I'm so so sorry
I'm so sorry I'm so so sorry
I'm so sorry for making this harder than it really has to be

I'm so sorry I'm so so sorry
I'm so sorry I'm so so sorry
I'm so sorry for making this harder than it really has to

I'm so sick of the way
That you lead me on
But I apparently have no self-respect
Thought I was stronger than this
Thought I knew better than to jump head first
Into what I knew
Was solid ground
And it ain't goin' nowhere when I come down
Thought I knew better than that
Nowhere fast
