I walked ten thousand miles, ten thousand miles to see you

And every gasp of breath I grabbed at just to find you
I climbed up every hills to get to you
I wondered ancient lands to hold just you

And every single step of the way of pain
Every single night and day
I searched for you
Through sandstorms and hazy dawns I reached for you

I stole ten thousand pounds, ten thousand pounds to see you
I robbed convenient stores coz I thought they'd make it easier

I lived off rats and toads and I starved for you
I fought off giant bears and I killed them too

And every single step of the way of pain
Every single night and day
I searched for you
Through sandstorms and hazy dawns I reached for you
I'm tired and I'm weak but I'm strong for you
I wanna go home but my love gets me through

La la la la la la la la la la la
La la la la la la la la la la la
