"Killing Time"

Visit "Killing Time" on MotoLyrics.com

We are the only ones alive.
Bleeding through everything that's mine.

I've marked the ground that wasn't safe.
I've tried to hide you from this place.

I am slowly killing the time.
I am uncontrollably in denial

I don't believe this is all you can offer.
I've just started breathing, you're closing the coffin.

Is this all you can offer me? Offer me.

Lay me down upon your stones.
Turn this dream into flesh and bone.

You are my only heart's desire.
If I could only breathe your fire.

I am slowly killing the time.
I am uncontrollably in denial

I don't believe this is all you can offer.
I've just started breathing, you're closing the coffin.

Is this all you can offer me? Offer me.
