Bring the sounds of silence
People may receive what you give
Another inspired day

Be the rain in springtime
Come as northern wind
Did you leave? I feel you always near

I hear the whisper of the land
Where music's always been your friend

You'll be dreaming far away from home
In a silent hotel
You'll be living in between the walls
Of your silent hotel

To the lost and lonely, please forgive the tears
They'll find the way, together find a way
Following your starlight, we'll not forget our dreams
And what it means to be a part of it

I hear the whisper of the land
Where music's always been your friend

You'll be dreaming far away from home
In a silent hotel
You'll be living in between the walls
Of your silent hotel

Magic is the place, magic is the land
It's magic to create more to understand
So magic was your touch, say ability
Magic what you did, now we are family

Magic is your world and also your hotel
So little time for so many things to tell
No better words to say what you meant to me
Magic all you did, now we are famÃ­ly
