Lights, Action, the camera's flashing
She puts on her make-up it's time to start acting
Prepare for another overdramatic scene
Girl you must be trippin'
Who are you kidding?
It's killing me inside to know that you're with him
But the stars never listen anyway

I'll stand atop these rooftops screaming I'll miss you
And I would kill just to hear you breathe the words "I care"
But that won't happen, No compassion
One last glass for happy endings
Let's break up, break up because I never wanna see you again
Don't wanna see you again...

The glare from your eyes is so seductive
That lately I've been self-destructive
But I don't care pour me another glass
Because I'd rather wind up on my ass
Then in a bed lying somewhere next to you girl
