Mary mother, don't pull the stars from the sky
Mary mother, how peaceful was your silent night

They call Him your bastard son
Look where that love-boy came from
Mary mother, when did you know?
Mary mother, when did you know?

It's all right, baby, hold on to your secret
It's all right, baby, hey, hey, hay
It's all right, baby, hold on to your secret
It's all right, baby

Mary mother, don't pull the stars from the sky
Mary mother, don't burn the wings from your eyes

They call Him your bastard son
Look where that love-boy came from
Mary mother, when did you know?
Mary mother, when did you know?

It's all right, baby, hold on to you secret
It's all right, baby, hey, hey, hey
It's all right, baby, hold on to your secret
It's all right, baby

Did you wanna run, did u want to hide?
Did you ever let the angels see you cry?
Mary mother, when did you know?
Mary mother, when did you know

They call Him your bastard son
They call Him your bastard son
They call Him your bastard son
They call Him your bastard son

It's all right, baby
(They call Him your bastard son)
It's all right, baby
(They call Him your bastard son)

Did you wanna run, did u want to hide?

Did you ever let the angels see you cry?
Mary mother, when did you know?
Mary mother, when did you know?
