Always
Find the right key
Stick to the frame, boy
(you) Stick to the frame
Now I know
I belong here

With you Im full of confidence
With you I'll take it to the end

Don't ever walk alone
Cause the man will bring you down
You can't pull it on your own
Just go the rounds

Shot through the heart by
This tearing apart

And it goes on for ages
Under achievers
Back to the plant
Im afraid it's contagious

Beware of future consequence
Be sure that everything makes sense

They'll never make us silent stars
Cause everytime there's two of us
Its for the better
Its for a better cause

Beware of future consequence
With you Im full of confidence
With you I'll take it to the end
