

Alquin "High Rockin'"

Visit "High Rockin'" on MotoLyrics.com

The better miss misses while the Libanese drunk aims and pisses in the big pot of gold, said:
He just couldn't hold it.
The crazy cat mumbles at the lampost, and then he stumbels.

Miss, you left in the hall
he just couldn't take it all
and at the end of the line we was out getting wired freezing up in the cold, holdin'on for our lives

High' rockin', we was having the time of our lives High'rockin, standing out on the ridge
wasted up to our nines
high'rockin', when suddenly
Johnny just comes out and dies...

The wee greeny blushes

at the crackpot who flushes and deals from the top of the deck but they usher him out

The crazy cat mumbles at the lightposts and then het stumbles.
Miss, you left in the hall
he just couldn't take it all Always out in the zone, crying down on his knees
'You can leave me for now, but don't leave me alone.'

High' rockin', we was having the time of our lives
High'rockin, standing out on the ridge
wasted up to our nines
high'rockin', when suddenly Johnny just comes out and dies...

