Can't find no time
nor a reason for a change of mind
now the curtain's down, why should I stay?

Can't find no trace in that old fashioned face, yeah remind me, please what words to say.

Night after night, didn't I try to forget you?
All those car - city lights, kept flashing their shadows
on me.

It's an LA rendevous
Foggy Thursday morning
Bess with me and John's with you
Just like, old times, alone together so close your eyes and see...

Can't find no words,
like a swor that won't hurt you.
The truth so dangerously unveiled.
It was understood
you had so hope left in the pocket
Life has been thief this time around

Night after night, didn't I try to forget you?
All those car - city lights, kept flashing their shadows
on me.

Another LA rendevous,
Smokey Thursday morning
Bess with me and John's with you
Just like, old times, alone together
so close your eyes.
