Nobody can wait forever
Nobody's gonna wait for me
You gotta step up to the porches of heaven
If you wanna set your country free

What happened to that raging sea
These chancing winds they're bothering me
What made me leave my island

Sails and sun
Golden dawn
Ooh, they looked so fine
Was it a dream
Yes, it seems so
After this long long time
Like a child
Free and wild
I'll remember you

My land of no desire

Tonight the soldier lights his fire
He's tomorrow's ashes in the street
While on the highway to the golden kingdom
We'll dance along, my corps and me

What happened to that raging sea
You know, these chancing winds they're bothering me
What made me leave my island

Sails and sun
Golden dawn
Ooh, they looked so fine
Was it a dream
Yes, it seems so
After this long long time
Like a child
Free and wild
I'll remember you
