out of the dark and into the light that is were you belong you?ll never know what tomorrow will bring it?s like a race with no destination isn?t there someone to answer your questions someone out in the fields but the desert skyes doesn?t hold the key you?re no fortuneteller

unspoken words... unanswered questions fears with no name caused by sorrow and pain it seems that your goals get out of sight but wherever you?ll fly on the wings of your dreams you?ll never get too high
