take your time enjoy your youth changes don't come overnight you'll find the truth it's all in me don't believe a word they say fight for what you think keep the flame it's your delight don't let it burn out keep the faith nothin' comes the easy way it's a hard race you struggle over right and wrong and black seems to be white don't give in stayin' strong when nothing is in sight

tales of mystery
where you don't belong
you can make the seasons change
find your destiny
it's anywhere you want somehow you will get thru

i can see myself thru the shadows of the past i'm walkin' the fine line between pleasure and pain i'm trying to find my way thru all the troubles that pass by no one's here no one's near you don't have to cry trouble comes and goes time will show you why and where you have to go in your world and in your mind nothin' stays the same now and here that's where you are you've got to fight the pain
