I know the city cabbies say I've got a lot to learn
If I get any more serious I'll spoil everybody's fun
But I hope you know me well enough to understand
I'm not really the drag at parties that you think that I am

I found out about your little lies last night
I found out about living life alone
And I, I thought that the news would shock you - why
Am I doing all the talking? I
Suppose this is just another wasted afternoon with you

I got sick of this kind of talk when I was 17
We've been all through the subject of your desirability
I know how easy it is to fall in love with memories

I found out about failing egos last night
I found out about lots of places like home
And I, I asked if you really cared
And I found the way that I comb my hair won't do
I guess this is just another wasted afternoon with you
