I believe that every word you've said was wrong with me
I don't think you've gotten close to even knowing me!
You don't wanna see the monsters deep inside of me
I believe you'll never know me in all honesty,
All I can be's someone who can't be hurt

CHORUS:

Like a rubberball, rubberball
When you fall, you bounce from wall to wall!
My rubberball, rubberball
When you fall,
You bounce from wall to wall
You bounce from wall to wall,
Like a rubberball!

I believe I'll never find a way to show the truth
I don't wanna be rejected or feel being used
You don't wanna see the monsters that I see in you
So you're never gonna see the real me shining through
In all I do, the one who can't be hurt
(Chorus)

I want your love, I need your warm embrace!
But I'm too afraid to say it to your face!
Cause in my head I'm so unique,
But that's gone the moment that I speak,
I'll stay within my own reality!
Like a rubberball
