Here we go now...

What does it take to win your love for me?
And how can I make this dream come true for me?
Oh you've got to make me see what does it take to win
your love for me
Baby, baby, yeah

And I've tried, I've tried, I've tried, I've tried, in every way I could
To make you see how much I love you, I thought you understood
What love's got to know, ooh baby, because love is so...
Baby, baby yeah

I've tried, I've tried, I've tried, and I've tried, in every way I could
To make you see how much I love you, I thought you understood
Oh you've got to make me see what does it take to win
your love for me
Baby...

What does it take to win your love for me?
What does it take to win your love for me?
What does it take to win your love for me?
What does it take to win your love for me?
