Time is ticking so there's no thinking just winning For you can keep healing All the things that you have past on don't you know that has made you strong Cause without no life or support you would just think to give it up But if you keep moving then you will get through there are big steps but you know what to do.

Time is ticking so don't you give it up time is ticking yea I know it get's rough but time is ticking and there no more chances what we have is our strenght within, time is ticking there's no running back time is ticking and I know you know that time is ticking so you gotta move on don't you know what happens time is ticking.

What you do is all upon you cause don't nobody makes you do what you do Everyday you do the same thang but you can change it all if you understand When things are so rough and you know you can't get tough don't you stop trien on you just keep moving on And when you think you have it all but when you relize and you turn back you think you bout to fall

Time is ticking there's no holding on time is ticking just keep on moving on time is ticking ain't nothing putting you down time is ticking no time to mess around time is ticking and that is a fact time is ticking I know you kno-o-ow that time is ticking and there's no time to waste if you belive in yo self then you could make it Everybody needs some help and you know you can't do it by yoself I belive in you and you belive in me what you really do is just what I see It's really not up to me to tell you what is wrong cause if you listen to our inspiration song Then you know we were right all along

that it get's rough time is ticking do you think you had enough but when you pull on you will see and get up, time is ticking there's no running back time is ticking and yes that is a fact time is ticking ther's no time to waste if you belive in yoself then you could make it, time is ticking there's no holding time is ticking I was with you all along time is ticking I kept yo beside me time is ticking I'm all in yo need
