I'm all alone,
Stranded in this room,
Giving up on everything,
Giving up on you!

I miss your lies,
They made me feel so special
I miss our nights,
Where we would lay together
Please come home,
I can't be alone forever
I'll change my ways
Re live our days together.

Always here for you.
Although you'll never love me
You can bet your life that it won't stop me.

I'm all alone,
Stranded in this room,
Giving up on everything,
Giving up on you!

None of this really matters
It's all old news, cliché of heartbreak,
And I still love you, doesn't matter now,
Your all cold and dead,
(Dead girls don't say no) x4

I'm all alone,
Stranded in this room,
Giving up on everything,
Giving up on you!
