It's what you mean to me
Daddy wasn't lying, Daddy wasn't lying
Her eyes they alight,
And I am alright
But again and again she suffers.

Just look at us now.

Erase the light,
She finds herself watching.

It's what you mean to me
Daddy wasn't lying, Daddy wasn't lying
Her eyes they alight,
And I am alright

Just look at us now.
Wake up, wake up

I'm trying so hard to save you.

What if I pull the trigger?
I'll never live this down.
What if I pull the trigger?
With my gun in your back and my right on the Bible.

They say it's passion, I say it's losing your feat.
