I could hold you tonight, if my feelings were that strong
I could touch you like I used to when we had our time
But you're down on your luck, a letter passed my way
I can't leave it behind and let you fool me one more time

She miss you and need you, you're her kind
I don't know how to handle situations in front of me

Can I be wrong? Is it someone who's playing?
Who wants to see us separate ways?
I don't know what is started, is it a new romance?

You have fooled me before. I can't forgive you one last time.
But if I'm wrong it would destroy you til the day you died

I can't see what's right or wrong, I caught in a fire
I don't know what to believe

Can I be wrong? Is it someone who's playing?
Who wants to see us separate ways?
I don't know what is started, is it a new romance?

I'm sorry if I'm wrong here...
I've lost everything I had.

SOLO

Can I be wrong? Is it someone who's playing?
Who wants to see us separate ways?
I don't know what is started, is it a new romance?
