You're a Part of Me - by Alyssa Jacey

Days have come and gone,
You are where you belong,
Slowly, you drifted away.

I have always had this fear,
Of the end, drawing near,
Now that it's here, I want the chance to say...

Chorus: Oh, how I'll miss you!
How can he take you away?
Although you won't be, right next to me,
When I close my eyes, forever I will find,
Sweet memories of you and I.

I remember every room,
And all the fun things we used to do,
Card games, and movies was your life with me!

And now I see you in your bed,
Oh! With every tear I turn my head,
I remember, exactly who you used to be!

Chorus: Oh, how I'll miss you!
How can he take you away?
Although you won't be, right next to me,
When I close my eyes, forever I will find,
Sweet memories of you and I.

Bridge: We will love you, as our days go on...
And through our smiles, you will still live on!!! OH!!!!

Chorus: Oh, how I'll miss you!
How can he take you away?
Although you won't be, right next to me,
When I close my eyes, forever I will find,
Sweet memories of you and I.
