My heart just soars when you touch me
Hearing you whisper my name
Oh i thank heaven for sending an angel
My life will never be the same
One kiss - I feel like i'm flying
Your smile is warm as the sun
To be together - with you forever
My greatest dream has just begun
*oh oh oh
I just wanna be love by you
'Cause that's all that really matters
Oh oh I just wanna be loved by you
And my heart will never shatter
I wanna be - loved by you
Our love can cross any river
And it's getting stronger each day
My head is spinning - a new life beginning Better believe me when I say *repeat
It was destiny - brought you here to me
Don't you ever go away
We were meant to be - it's a guarantee
In my arms you'll always stay
*repeat
