[1st verse:]

Well it's been a long road to here
But I think I've finally found myself
And I just wish that you were near
So I can say the things I've always felt

From that look in your eyes I can tell
What everyone else sees
That my faults I wear all too well
But you always seem to bring out the best in me

[Chorus:]

I know I'm never far from home
Just a little drive or a call
And when I'm out there on my own
It's good to know you're here for the long haul

And if you ever find yourself alone
Just always know, you're never too far from home

[2nd verse:]

My heart's fallen off my sleeve
And it's been broken too many times
Now when I look in the mirror I see
What I've longed for, a laugh line

[Chorus:]

I know I'm never far from home
Just a little drive or a call
And when I'm out there on my own
It's good to know you're here for the long haul

And if you ever find yourself alone
Just always know, you're never too far from home

[Bridge:]

And all the best that life can bring
This world with you means everything
I felt the sun kiss me today
And with a smile, I heard my heart say

[Chorus:]

I know I'm never far from home
Just a little drive or a call
And when I'm out there on my own
It's good to know you're here for the long haul

And if you ever find yourself alone
Just always know, you're never too far from home
