Do you know that
Whenever you walk into the Room your face brightens
Up the room
Everything changes when your
Around but when you leave
Everything starts fading away.

CHORUS:
You bring me back to life
When I am laying there naked
On the floor
When I can't move
You make me breathe again
I'm so lost for words
I can't believe it, I've finally found
Something good to rely on Something good for Me.

You tell me that I am beautiful
When I say I'm not
I don't know what I did
But I must've done something good
To meet you.

I'm so blessed to have you
In my life
Oh yes I am
Oh yes I am yes I am
I am so blessed
Blessed, blessed, blessed
I know I'm truly blessed.
