[VERSE 1:]

Hey let me tell about a girl I know
Sittin in her room one day starin out the window
She made a mad low beat grab the old pencil and She tapped on her lap and made her own tempo

Time went by all night she wrote
She heard her older sister yelling at her through the door
Your mama said u betta come on before your food get cold
But she kept on writing tell the pencil broke

[CHORUS:]

Ain't no need for u to worry
Ain't no need for u to cry
Ain't no need to be discourage
You can see it in her eyes
Don't worry (Don't worry, Don't worry)
Cause she's happy(she's happy, she's happy)

Ain't no need for u to worry
Ain't no need for u to trip
U can tell just by her swagger
That u know she's stacking chips
Don't worry(don't worry... yeeah yeah)
She's happy(She's happy, she's happy)

[VERSE 2:]

She comes outside of the corner store
Her and her friends singing songs with the radio
She will pretend she was performing at a sold out show
And the people stopped and listen then they asked for more

She came in first in the talent show
Her fam went on and on about it the whole ride home
She said I've never got so many compliments before
Her momma said girl u gonna make it baby I just know

[CHORUS:]

Ain't no need for u to worry

Ain't no need for u to cry
Ain't no need to be discourage
You can see it in her eyes
Don't worry (Don't worry, Don't worry)
Cause she's happy(she's happy, she's happy)

Ain't no need for u to worry
Ain't no need for u to trip
U can tell just by her swagger
That u know she's stacking chips
Don't worry(don't worry... yeeah yeah)
She's happy(She's happy, she's happy)

[VERSE 3:]

She heard about a site that was called myspace
She even sent out all the info on her twitter page
For long around the world they all knew her name
And she knew it was time to be on her way

She booked herself a flight out to LA
Dancing down hollywood like she was on stage
Now she signed doing fine and well on her way
Yeah I guess you figured out that girl is mee...

[CHORUS:]

Ain't no need for u to worry
Ain't no need for u to cry
Ain't no need to be discourage
You can see it in her eyes
Don't worry (Don't worry, Don't worry)
Cause she's happy(she's happy, she's happy)

Ain't no need for u to worry
Ain't no need for u to trip
U can tell just by her swagger
That u know she's stacking chips
Don't worry(don't worry... yeeah yeah)
She's happy(She's happy, she's happy)
