In the dark it's so easy to be mislead.
I gotta' keep this fire inside raging-
For everyone to see so follow... follow me.
I saw so much in you-
But then you went and killed it with chemicals-
And blocked your ears with ignorance.
Your tongues so sharp now-
But your only hurting yourself-
And it just makes it harder to keep your mouth shut.
Momma' said son "don't get caught up-
Caught up in this sin and let it keep you cold."
I said "Momma' well I got the devil beneath my feet
With The Good Man by my side."
So keep your feet planted in the ground-
And your hands in the air.
I pray you see where this is leading you.
