(Johann Sebastian Bach/Amanda Lear)

This is my alphabet Because time goes on, and things are changing in my world
Here is a new alphabet for the children of my generation.
Of course, all this words have a meaning for me But all the generations might find a different mood to their world.
My alphabet goes like this :

A stand for anything and B for bionic and Bach
C stands for claustrophobia and D for dirty old men E stands for everyone, F is full-frontal and friends G of course stands for getting a divorce, H now stands for hijacking and, I for a king size ego, J now stands for jukebox and junkies
K is for those who kiss and tell and leading lady starts with L
naturally, M is for me, N is for never again O is for that famous stOry, huum and P for pain, poverty
Q stands for quality, which is better than quantity R stands for rock and roll, S is sexy and sad, T drives them totally mad and U for everything to me, V stands for little voodoo W for where and When, X sounds extremely mysterious Y is the question I keep asking Z for the zero you will get, if you don't learn my alphabet.
