(Amanda Lear/Anthony Monn)

It was down in Chinatown that I met the opium Queen Babyface girl from Shanghai never smile and never cry.

She now rules the underworld down in Chinatown
She runs all the opium den down in Chinatown.
Bring her your gold bring her your worries
And when life gets a bit too dreary to stand
Give a ring to the Queen of Chinatown.

Go down, go down to the Queen of Chinatown
She'll pick you up when you're feeling down.
Go down, go down to the Queen of Chinatown
And she'll soon blow your blues away.

It was down in Chinatown when I met the opium Queen
Babyface girl from Shanghai never smiled and never cried.
When love isn't what it sounds go to Chinatown
When your frineds have let you down got to Chinatown.
When life is pain, when love is sorrow
And it gets more than you can possibly stand
Give a ring to the Queen of Chinatown.

Go down, go down to the Queen of Chinatown
She'll pick you up when you're feeling down.
Go down, go down to the Queen of Chinatown
And she will blow your blues away.

It was down in Chinatown when I met the opium Queen
Babyface girl from Shanghai never smiled and never cried.

Go down, go down to the Queen of Chinatown...

When your life gets a bit dreary, when you're down
When you're feeling low, give a ring to the Queen of Chinatown.
She'll help you out, she'll pick you up, she'll sniff your blues away.

Go down, go down to the Queen of Chinatown... Go down...
