Genius is in the mistakes (woo!)
The rules do not apply (they don't)
Maybe the wrong time and place (what, huh?)
Listen to the voice inside
Hey - just 'cause he ain't tall (tall)
So I met him at the mall (mall)
Doesn't mean that I should write him off
It's just a circumstance
So what if he can't dance?
His heart is kind and those big hands are soft
He speaks a language that can change what I believe

Genius is in the mistakes (woo!)
The rules do not apply (they don't)
Maybe the wrong time and place (what, huh?)
To the naked eye
To the concious mind
Shouldn't be denied
Listen to the voice inside

So - my friends don't think he's cool (so what?)
He likes Coltrane, I like Tool (who's that?)
He wears leather patches on his tweed
Yeah-- but I know that he's deep (teach me)
The company I keep (whatever)
May not be the company I need
To pay attention
This is serendipity (serendipity)

Genius is in the mistakes (woo!)
The rules do not apply (they don't)
Maybe the wrong time and place (what, huh?)
To the naked eye
To the concious mind
Shouldn't be denied
Listen to the voice inside
Genius is in the mistakes (woo!)
The rules do not apply (they don't)
Maybe the wrong time and place (what, huh?)
To the naked eye
To the concious mind

Shouldn't be denied
Listen to the voice inside

Genius - he's a genius

Every big decision is a trial by fire
Wisdom acquired
Fuel my desire
Ooh baby, my heart aspires to genius

Genius is in the mistakes (woo!)
The rules do not apply (they don't)
Maybe the wrong time and place (what, huh?)
To the naked eye
To the concious mind
Shouldn't be denied
Listen to the voice inside
Genius is in the mistakes (woo!)
The rules do not apply (they don't)
Maybe the wrong time and place (what, huh?)
To the naked eye
To the concious mind
Shouldn't be denied
Listen to the voice inside
