Im looking out my bedroom Window im looking for my daddy to come home hes been gone for so long i know my mommy still loves him so mommy and dad they get in a fight the next thing i hear the slamming of the door My daddys gone
Im all Alone
i cry myself to sleep

[Chorus]

Daddy dont you know that i miss you cause you gone why dont you come back home please come home mommy still loves you, but i love you even more oh please daddy please come home we went out to hunt someday we went out to fish the next day all my dreams had come true my daddys back and we are one again i woke up to find he's gone tears started running down my face I was Only Dreaming

My Daddy's Gone
Daddy Where Are You?

[Chorus]2x

oh please daddy please come home
