All I really want
Is for you to want me
And all you gotta be
Is not so scared
All you gotta do
Is want me to want you
And all you gotta be, is there

I'm ready to begin
So let me out, or let me in

CHORUS

'Cause all I need
Is a little excuse
Just a ray of hope
To hold on to
From your lips, a sound
That can break me down
So tell me something good
'Cause all I need
Is a little excuse

If all you really want
Is for me to love you
Then all you gotta do
Is say
If you really feel
Feel that you need me ['cause I need you]
Then promise me, you'll stay

I'm ready to begin
So let me out, or let me in

Tell me where to stand, and I'll be fine
Tell me what to say, I'll read my lines
But don't leave me here to wait
When I'm cold, and you're lonely
