I've got make up, all over my face
Mascara stains, all over the place
I stayed up too late, crying last night
I dumped my boyfriend, he wasn't right
Stupid guys..

CHORUS

I'm the girl who's always late
It's unpredictable with me
I don't really care, about what they say
I'm the girl who lives a dream
These thoughts are running through my head
Nothing's ever, how it all appears to be

They can stare at me, and say those things
But I don't care, it don't get to me
I wish they knew, that there's more to life
Then the clothes they wear, or the car they drive
Pathetic lives..

Deep inside, that's really me
There's a girl, that no one sees
