And I believe in nothing
So don't leave me here
With shadows behind, city lights
I will shortly come in if you need me, tonight

And after you wake, the dream will fade
I might still be on the ground
But so you know

CHORUS

I'm not flying away, yeah
With out you, so you know
I'm not flying away, yeah
With out you, so you know

And I believe in something
So I won't leave you here
With all these satellites outside
I will surely catch you if you're falling, tonight

And after you wake, the dream will fade
I might still be on the ground
But so you know

chorus

I don't believe in super heros
But I can warm you from the cold
It's that star in the sky
That's been passing you by
For so long, it's so wrong
It's that star in the sky
That's been passing you by
For so long, it's so wrong

After you days been saved
You don't have to find your way back home
Tonight
