Am I holding out for a dream
Is this a little girl fantasy
Is there somebody only for me
How will I know when it's you?
Wish I, I could just have a clue
Wanting too good to be true

Anticipating it's time

I see worlds go round, my heart pounds
When will I be found?
I, I know you'll call through it all
Waiting for my star to fall

Have we met or are you unseen
Will you believe that we are meant to be
Won't you come into my reality
Will I find the right words to say
Would it make a difference anyway
What if you're only a day away?

Anticipating it's time

I see worlds go round, my heart pounds
When will I be found?
I, I know you'll call through it all
Waiting for my star to fall

Rain falls, the sun rises, life passes by
I wish upon a star that you'll be mine

I see worlds go round, my heart pounds
When will I be found?
I, I know you'll call through it all
Waiting for my star to fall

I see worlds go round, my heart pounds
When will I be found?
I, I know you'll call through it all
Waiting for my star to fall

Waiting for my star, waiting for my star to fall, waiting for my star to fall
You'll come, yeah
Waiting for my star to fall
