The same four walls surround me
The same colors, the same tone
The same shit everyday
The same old broken washed up home.

What did i,
Do to deserve this
Punishment,
Mother father....
Only child,
Co-dependent on
Everything and everyone around

The same old screaming and shouting
My bedrooms still cold and I'm still alone
Their violence surrounds me
I wish that they could only see
What did i,
Do to deserve this
Punishment,
Mother father....
Only child,
Co-dependent on
Everything and everyone around

What did i,
Do to deserve this
Punishment,
Mother father....
Only child,
Co-dependent on
Everything and everyone

Why do i keep on crying?
Is it really worth my time
You keep screaming and shouting
And I'll keep trying and trying
