Forget the politics, and all the hypocrites, you know the plot is sick,
From religion indecision many I could tell you, think your too young,
They say your too tall, wait till tomorrow comes, but today is the day,
You gotta show the way, I say Chorus: hey now now, we're calling you out, Never back down no fear no doubt, hey now now you can show us how,
We gotta get up cause we're calling all church punks!

This is a call for a truth rebellion, to all the people who here this is a Call, to make a stand through you fist up in the air, make up your mind,
Now is the time

Repeat Chorus
