"Death Of Beauty"

Visit "Death Of Beauty" on MotoLyrics.com

She lies lifeless on a concrete floor
She held so much and wanted more
As her last breath escapes her mouth
She lifts her arm and reaches out

The death of such beauty
How'd we let her slip away?
She came to us for help
And we turned the other way

She lies lifeless on a concrete floor
She held so much and wanted more

The death of such beauty
How'd we let her slip away?
She came to us for help
And we turned the other way

Cold blooded murderers here we stand
With guilt on our faces and blood on our hands
Open your eyes and start to breathe again
We're here for you
Reach out and take our hands
