"Lose Control"

Visit "Lose Control" on MotoLyrics.com

This is what it feels like
To lose control
This is what it feels like
To be left alone

This is what it feels like
To lose a friend
This is what it feels like
To reach the end

God came down
And walked beside me
God came down
He sent friends to guide me

God came down
To remind me
This is what it feels like
To be loved

This is what it feels like
To face the truth
This is what it feels like
To know it's through

This is what it feels like
To say goodbye
This is what it feels like
For a man to cry

God came down
And walked beside me
God came down
He sent friends to guide me

God came down
To remind me
This is what it feels like
To be loved

This is what it feels like
To be loved

God came down
And walked beside me
God came down
He sent friends to guide me

God came down
To remind me
This is what it feels like
To be loved

This is what it feels like
This is what it feels like

This is what it feels like
To be loved
This is what it feels like
To be loved

This is what it feels like
This is what it feels like
This is what it feels like
To be loved

This is what it feels like
This is what it feels like
This is what it feels like
To be loved
