I don't need a new face,
All new friends, a new medicine
I don't need a big big house,
A new job with the same benefits
It's a crystal ship but she's sinking quick
Now my life's a mess, and I want to change it

And when I rise and when I fall,
You are the Answer
I know it's true 'cause I've tried it all,
You are the Answer

I can't believe how I feel,
Is this for real now that I'm changing
You never know how far this could go,
A new hope, some soul rearranging
It's a new sunrise through my newborn eyes
'Cause I've found the Way, the Truth, the Life

And when I rise and when I fall,
You are the Answer
I know it's true 'cause I've tried it all,
You are the Answer
[x2]

Lights come on, it's a brand new start
Old illusions seem to fall apart
Every day, we're making history
Never the same as we used to be
Flesh and bone, heart and soul
Hard drive upload, reinstall
A new sunrise through these newborn eyes
I've found the Way, the Truth, the Life

And when I rise and when I fall,
You are the Answer
I know it's true 'cause I've tried it all,
You are the Answer
