[CHORUS]

So now your feelin' like your healin' and you are the queen Everythings perfect and worth it your life don't miss a thing
When you sniff it get lifted your on top of the world
But whens it's distant you missed it the helpless little girl
You takin' money from your family cause you cold and desperate
With no money your just a junkie but you won't accept it You won't slow down until you end up dead or get arrested
I'd give you my heart with the diamonds encrested

It all starts with the person that your with Anticipation as your waiting for another sniff
What some consider pain others consider a gift They say the care about you but they don't care about shit
As your blood stream is flooding with something you've never felt Find yourself trapped in a hell, nobody else
But I love you like I can, understand that I'm the man that took the stand and took your hand and tried to help you but once again you had a way(a way)
When I still had so much more to say So now I pound my head and wait for my soul to take I guess some things were just supposed to change
As you shakin' and bleedin', drippin' and sniffin' the Cocaine

[CHORUS]

So now your feelin' like your healin and you are the
Everythings perfect and worth it your life don't miss a
thing
When you sniff it get twistid your on top of the world But whens it's distant you missed it the helpless little
girl
You takin' money from your family cause you cold and

desperate

With no money your just a junkie but you won't accept it
You won't slow down until you end up dead or get
arrested
I'd give you my heart with the diamonds
encrested(encrested)

The search for answers have left us with mo questions
We are showed the lives but learn no lessons
I pray to God and I ask him for some mo blessin's But it seems all the world wants to do is escape the stressin'

Above you can struggle with love will leave in unimpressed an'
Cocaine and things enter your brain your body straight infested

With such a sick, a sick death won't let you live a day
With no escape afraid to look your problems in the face No matter how bad you hurt the ones around you or yourself
Your mind and soul(soul) is trapped inside the wishing well

And then you claim it ain't no thang and that you ain't insane
Shakin' and bleedin', drippin' and sniffin' the Cocaine

[CHORUS]

So now your feelin' like your healin' and you are the
Everythings perfect and worth it your life don't miss a
thing
But whens it's distant you missed it the helpless little
girl
You takin' money from your family cause you cold and
desperate
With no money your just a junkie but still you won't accept it
You won't slow down until you end up dead or get
arrested
I'd give you my heart with the diamonds
encrested(encrested)

Another night that you try to go to sleep
My eyes drip to the sky I cry and I weep At the thought of you, so cold and alone, the anger it brings me is too much for a song Cause I wish nothing more then for you to be ok For my blood to overcome, fuck I wish it everyday As I begged and I begged until my integrity vanished
The many times I bled for you put me in a panic

I know that when your done there will be nothing left But a shell held bent on Cocaine and Meth
All I ask of you now is that you take a fucking step Back to relax, understand and then accept

[CHOURUS ALSO PLAYING]

That you were more important to me then my own life
I loved you much more then the stars and the sky
I know that when you think of me you wished I'd fuckin' die
I know you lay alone in bed and ask God why All I can tell you is that the one reason's the same I wake up every morning just to decide on my brain Angry is so packed and faith made things change
I lost my thought with a drug named Cocaine
