Open your eyes, to the possibilities
Of what you like
Or really truly be
I know sometimes it's hard to see

I know you cry
I know it's hurt your cry
Your losing your fate, I know your dying inside
But your heart should always be your guide

No matter what the world will say
You can change your life today
Gotta find a better way
This is how it starts.

Chorus
Your always gonna try
Something to make you dream large
Your spirit has the key for
Positive Reality
Your perfect how you are
So be that shining star
The love will set us free for
Positive Reality

Like there's no guarantee
Choose your destiny

Focus your minds
So you can get what's yours
It's waiting for you
Right behind the next door
You know your ready
For so much more

No matter what the world will say
You can change your life today
Get up, find a better way
This is how it starts

Chorus
You always gotta try

Something to make you dream large
Your spirit has the key for
Positive reality
Your perfect how you are
So be that shining star
Your love will set us free for
Postive Reality

Like there's no garuntee
Choose your destiny

You're not the firt to fall
You're not the last to lose
But you can have it all

Like there's no garuntee

Chorus 2x
Positive reality
Your love will set you free for

Like there's no garuntee
