I never knew that I could be mesmerized
I never knew that I could fall so deep
I never knew that I would be sailing high
While the winners rushing by
I never knew that I would sail these seas

Thought I'd drown alone but now
I drown in your arms
You saved me baby
You saved me baby
You saved my heart from beating alone

Whoa, the waters cold and I
I am petrified
I never wanted to dive into the blue
I hold your hand and I
Know that I'm alive
Yeah, I know your right beside me
I take another breathe just for you

Thought I'd drown alone but now
I drown in your arms
Cos' you saved me baby
You saved me baby
You saved my heart from beating alone

And I need you baby
So come and save me
Come save my heart from beating alone, oh

Thought I'd drown alone but now
I drown in your arms
You saved me baby
You saved me baby
You saved my heart from beating alone

And I need you baby
So come and save me
Come save my heart from beating alone, oh

You saved me baby

So come on, come on save me
You saved me baby
