To everything in life that has an end
I hope you've made the best of your time with The ones who matter most, the ones who cared You're in a world that's hard to just fit in You're searching for your place amongst your friends Though it seems that everyone will hide behind their skin

It's all for you, all I've done I'd do again
From deep inside, all my life, I'm living in
From right to wrong, back to right to wrong again
It's just a stage, a played out script to this
From being true, to being used is how we live
But you don't have to be like them, you don't
Have to be like them

So now's the time to take a look around
I hope you see the world turned inside out
It's not a perfect life that we all live, but we are living you always seem to put yourself ahead you never looked at yourself as we did now it seems that everyone has turned on you again

It's all for you, all I've done I'd do again
From deep inside, all my life, I'm living in
From right to wrong, back to right to wrong again
It's just a stage, a played out script to this
From being true, to being used is how we live
But you don't have to be like them, you don't
Have to be like them

I don't want to be them (Living on the weekends)
They're just another problem (Failing just to fit in)
They're running out of reasons
To say you're wrong [2x]

It's all for you, all I've done I'd do again
From deep inside, all my life, I'm living in
From right to wrong, back to right to wrong again
It's just a stage, a played out script to this
From being true, to being used is how we live

I know you'll never be like them

I tried to make you see, that you were all I need
I'd change my ways for you our lives spoke only truth
In time you'd make me see that you were there for me
I'd give my life for you. I'd give my best for you.
