As I turn to walk away leaving everything I know
What I'd give to hear you say "Please, don't let me go"
For I can't live in this place it's as if my only home is gone.

Where will we fall to?
When will we see?
To look past the defeats, it's what's underneath
Cause there's a beauty in how you lie
With every sparkle that's in your eyes tonight
Just let them shine.

I couldn't live for one more day
I couldn't stand to be alone
I'm fighting just to say it's you I'm letting go
As I try to find my way, as I walk this road alone.

Where will we fall to?
When will we see?
To look past the defeats, it's what's underneath
Cause there's a beauty in how you lie
With every sparkle that's in your eyes tonight
Just let them shine.

I'm finding myself within you
The moments we shared can't take away
I'm buried in deep without you
We'll never be the same
I'm finding myself within you
The moments we shared can't take away
I'm buried in deep without you
We'll never be the same

Where will we fall to?
When will we see?
To look past the defeats, it's what's underneath
Cause there's a beauty in how you lie
With every sparkle that's in your eyes tonight
Just let them shine.
