I never came to see this falling,
There's a truth for every word,
To be the one to take what's handed,
At a loss I fear the worse
Is yet to come as I hold back tonight
I've felt it for some time to know that fear will find
This space inside, a place I just can't hide

I swore I'd never change; I'd be the same,
Here and now I stand with a choice to take away
everything
So save me now I've lost my way
What this means to me, won't change a thing
I still believe and hope that that this life
Will bring to me everything
So save me now I've lost my way
...I've lost my way

I swear I've lived for every moment,
I have bled for those who've tried
To say I've lost my sense to show this,
What it takes to stay alive

I swore I'd never change; I'd be the same,
Here and now I stand with a choice to take away
everything
So save me now I've lost my way
What this means to me, won't change a thing
I still believe and hope that that this life
Will bring to me everything
So save me now I've lost my way
...I've lost my way

It's more than these walls; they've built up to hide
We see it in images frozen in time
As it will take us all tonight
It's more than these walls; they've built up inside
We see it, it's killing our will to try
As it will take us all tonight

What this means to me, won't change a thing
I still believe and hope that that this life

Will bring to me everything
So save me now I've lost my way
What this means to me, won't change a thing
I still believe and hope that that this life
Will bring to me everything
So save me now I've lost my way
...I've lost my way
